

By Road:

Coming from London, take the A12 towards Chelmsford/Southend. At the Gallows Corner flyover the road separates – follow the sign to Southend, over the flyover. At the next set of traffic lights, just after the pedestrian footbridge turn right, to Hornchurch, into Ardleigh Green Road. There is (was) a Kwik Fit on the right hand corner. Follow signs to Hornchurch – straight on. You come to a mini one-way system where Billet Lane and North St. join Butts Green Road with the Chequers Pub in the middle. Turn right behind the pub, then left into Billet Lane. After about 200 hundred yards you will see the Queens Theatre on your left, the entrance to the Car Park for Langton's House is opposite this (and is not easy to spot) turn into here and park.

There are NO train services to Emerson Park on Sundays
